Integrating Skills in Language Learning units for pre-intermediate and intermediate students

DEDICATION

" To all those students who are getting bored to death in their English classrooms..."

and who are sick and tired of just listening to their teachers and repeating the lesson "

" To all those teachers who risking divorce or perpetual celibacy spend most of their Sunday afternoons....

thinking up
(and preparing!)
great activities
to do with their students on Monday morning "

We have all heard about the 4 basic linguistic skills, or haven't we?

Is there a "superskill"?

LISTENING

SPEAKING

READING

WRITING

Do you think it is necessary to integrate the 4 skills?

Do you think that integration of skills facilitates learning?

Do you think it is easy to integrate them?

The New Skills for the 21st Century

COMMUNICATION

Teaching languages with a:

FOCUS ON FORM

FOCUS ON MEANING

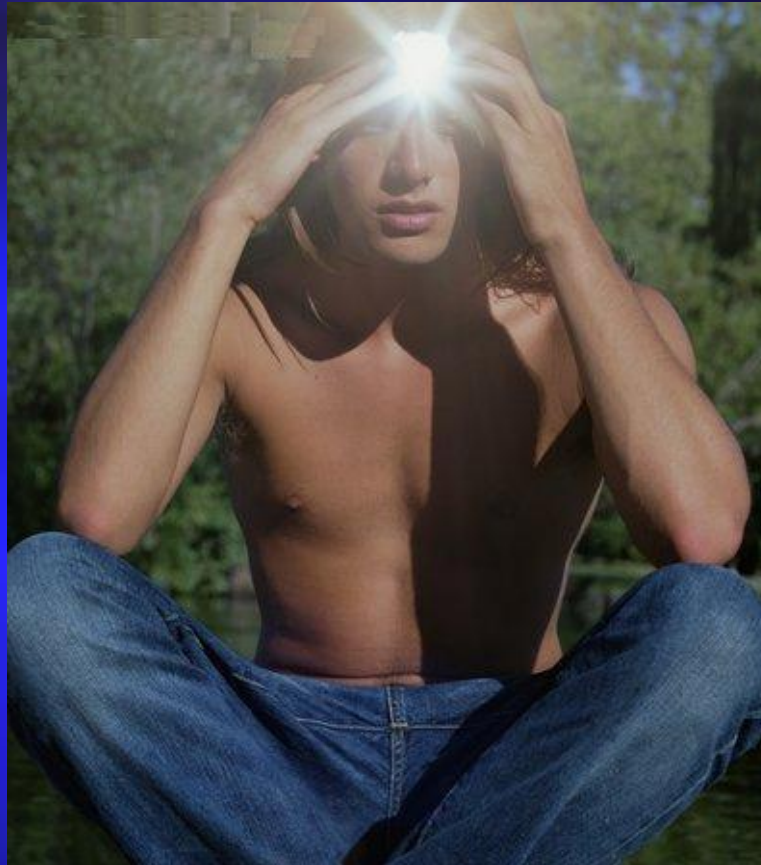

COLLABORATION

COLLABORATION

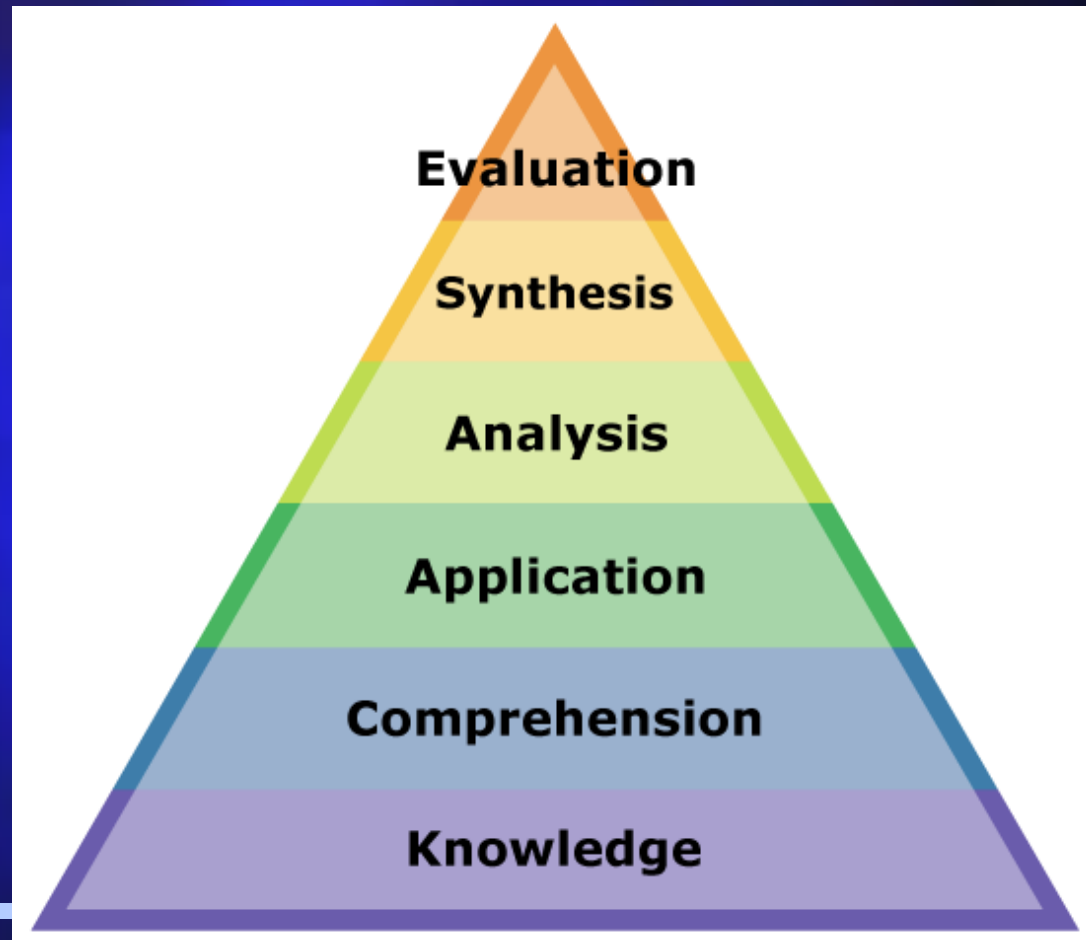

- 1.- Establish group agreements
- 2.- Teach them how to listen
- 3.- Teach them to negotiate
- 4.- Model what you expect.

CRITICAL THINKING

CRITICAL THINKING SKILLS

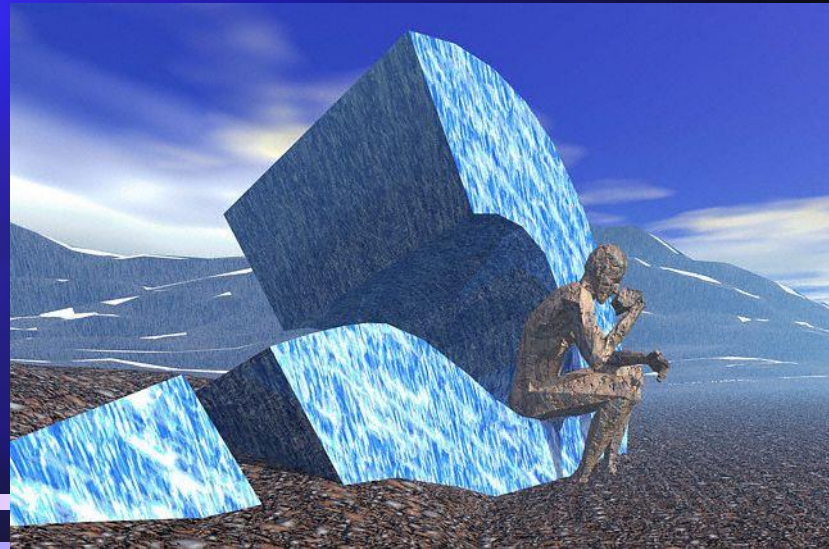

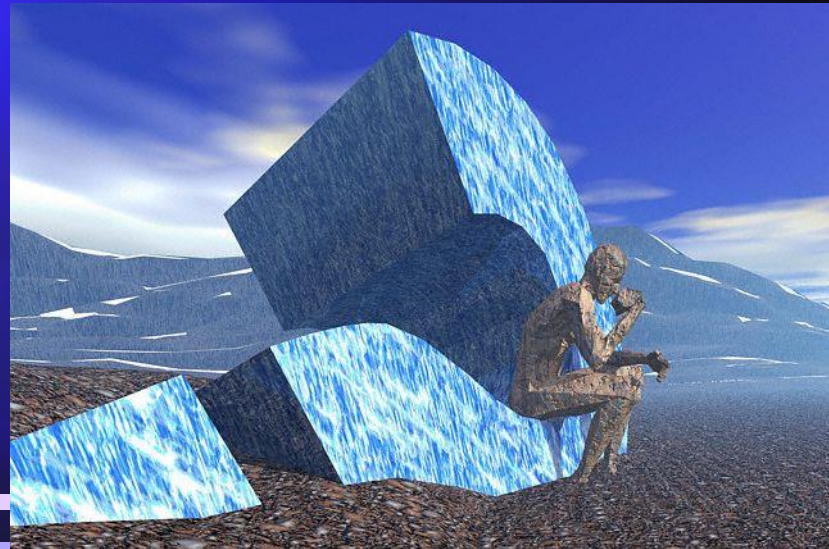

CREATIVITY

Do you think these are new skills?

How relevant do you think they are for learning a foreign language?

Do you think we have the necessary preparation to teach them?
