HOW TO...?

THE PRACTICAL SIDE OF ELT.

1ST & 2ND AUGUST 2019

ORGANIZED BY

SHARE EDUCATION

Once again, it's been a real pleasure to perform my one-woman show at such an awesome yearly event: the Share Convention.

What is "All by Myself"? The one and only character is a retired English teacher (quite fed up by now) whose dream has always been to become an actress. Since it's never too late, she learns some stuff in order to audition for a role, and while she waits to be called, rehearses her lines with the audience and also opens her heart and tells them her life story.

Since she's a Shakespeare fan (who isn't?), there's a bit of "Juliet", "Emilia" (Othello) and "Katherine (The Taming of the Shrew).

The monologue also includes some pieces written by the American playwright Gabriel Davies: "The Gratitude List", "It's terrible being nice", "The yoga fart", "I ate the divorce papers".

There's my own material too: how to deal with students-parents-principals-colleagues; "Cyber dating"; "The Shrink"; how to age gracefully, etc.

The aim is to make people laugh and provide some food for thought. In fact, I intend to be a kind of mirror in which the audience will feel at times reflected.

I would be delighted to hit the road and perform my solo show wherever you'd like me to. Please contact me:
